Ever since May of last year when the first great shock ocside the dead—those sacred moments curred, the earth has trembled more when the pangs of eternal separation or less almost daily, so much so that only two large buildings were erected in place of the hundred that stood there before.

The old church erected long ago by the Spaniards, also stood although it The population generally had built temporary shelter out of small logs and the branches of trees, being afraid

On Saturday, the 15th of September the people were assembled together without a single exception in to properly prepare for the festivities on Independence Day, the national holiday of Mexico. When in the midst of the proceedings the earth began to shake. Amidst the greatest excitement and shricking of the women the assemblage escaped from the tottering building into the open air. Scarcely had the last on got outside when the huge structure

The Tide Turned.

Southern California has supplied Arizona with fruit, grain and hay for years, now we in turn are supplying her with beef, hav, early fruit and tained large sums of money, aggregat- this recital of plain and unanswerable barley, fortune's wheel in its marvelous revolutions has invariably rested its index point on the fair and justly famed Los Angeles county, but the world is in motion, its deserts of yesterday are the Eden of to-day. That wand of progress and transformation, the liquid streams of life giving water transforms as by magic, the home of the cacti, to the orchards and the fruit fields the devolpment of the tremendous water supply of this valley by the construction of the Arizona and other splendid canal systems has done the work for this valley."-Phenix
